What a bunch of BULLSHIT. The man has lost his senses, Look at the news feed; people fighting and hoarding toilet paper to fight a flu. Then your government brings in the military to fight the flu, not a hot totty and some rest, an aspirin and some Nyquil. People, the SHAME TRAIN will not be here long. The excuse of believing your government will not cover your lack of judgment of entertaining a LIE from your Government. Can you hear ME? #prepare-for-water
